

Knights Weekly

April 13th: Spring Issue 4

Baseball

After starting out the season 10-0, the Knights have dropped two games. One to Springboro on Tuesday and Loveland on Wednesday.

Kings will take on Loveland again today at The Castle and then head to Testerman Park tomorrow for a double header against Little Miami and La Salle High School.

The Knights, through 12 games, are leading the conference in runs scored and runs against. They also have individuals leading the conference in wins, strikeouts, home runs, and RBIs.

Softball

The Lady Knights are currently 5-3 overall and 4-0 in the Eastern Cincinnati Conference, heading into the middle of the regular season! In four conference games, Kings has only allowed four runs and have scored 46!

They host Loveland this evening and head to Little Miami tomorrow for a double header against the Panthers and Wilmington High School.

Senior, Josie Adams leads the conference in wins and strikeouts and sophomore, Kelsey Schmidt leads the conference in home runs!

Men's Tennis

The Knights have started the season 2-2 overall and they head into a very busy week with matches against CHCA, Walnut Hills, Mason, Milford, and Loveland in five days!

Josh Lee is currently 3rd in the ECC for his first singles record.

Track & Field

The Track & Field teams head to Centerville High School and Waynesville High School this evening for two meets after having not competed since last weekend.

Currently, Nakemon Williams leads the ECC in the 100m Dash, Alex Justus in the 800m and 1600m Run, Josh Guckenberger in the 300m Hurdles, Gwyn Gorley in the 400m Dash, Jennifer Cooper in the 800m and 1600m Run, Leah Maschino in the 3200m Run, Alex Marsh in Shotput, and Tori Todd in Discus.

Men's Lacrosse

The Men's Lacrosse team is currently 5-2 overall and are 1-1 in the ECC after defeating Turpin on Wednesday! Leading the ECC in goals are Jake Stylski and Jack Scharner (named Cincinnati Enquirer, Athlete of the Week), leading in saves in James Naughton, and Chris Stock leads in caused turnovers.

Women's Lacrosse

The Lady Knights are 1-1 in the ECC and 4-2 overall after defeating Little Miami on Wednesday. The ladies will travel to Louisville today for a weekend tournament. Follow @kingsathletics and @khsladylaxers for updates throughout the weekend!
